KPFK 90.7 mc fm FOLIO Dec. 7-20, 1964

3729 Cahuenga Boulevard, North Hollywood. TR 7-5583, ST 1-0150. Mailing address: KPFK, Los Angeles 38

The Program Folio is published bi-weekly by KPFK as a service to those listeners who support KPFK's free and unique programming by voluntary subscriptions. The basic annual subscription is $15.00. Contributions are tax-deductible. Subscriptions are transferable to KPFA and WBAI.

KPFK is a non-commercial station owned by Pacifica, a non-profit educational foundation. Other Pacifica stations are KPFA in Northern California and WBAI in New York City.

KPFK transmits from Mt. Wilson with 110,000 watts, e.r.p. Normal broadcast hours are 7:00 a.m. to 12:00 midnight weekdays, and 8:00 a.m. to 12:00 midnight weekends. Dates after listings refer to past or future duplicate broadcasts. Numbers in parentheses following concerts refer to playing time in minutes.

Robert Adler is Manager and Program Director.

Were You Listening?

Chances are, you weren't. But on November 3rd, KPFK conducted its most satisfying team effort since the Democratic Convention coverage of 1960. With only two days of preparation, some forty staff and volunteers attempted to produce a co-ordinated and intelligent report of the 1964 National Election. Many listeners have told us that the result appeared to be the most complete radio coverage, particularly as applied to California and local issues. Taped reports (including two which scooped the networks!) came in from various headquarters; data from the Associated Press and from television was filtered, analyzed and passed to "anchors" Bob Stout and Dave Ossman; a panel of commentators, moderated by Robert Adler, discussed the reports and data, adding an element of political controversy to the evening. We'd like to express our appreciation here to Producer Vaughn Marlowe, Assoc. Producer Michael Selden, Director Sylvia Rubenstein, Floor Manager Sandra Allan, Technical Operators Nick Cramer and Richard Guy, Editorial Assistant Sophie Stein and to at least thirty other volunteers whose names we haven't the space to mention. Some of the members of the "Poverty Central" team are shown in Richard Guy's on-the-spot cover photographs. Were you listening? Perhaps you will next time.

Is A Democracy Possible?

For nearly three years on Pacifica Radio, the Center For The Study Of Democratic Institutions has produced dialogues and discussions intended to clarify 20th century issues. Are our institutions what they say they are? Do they function anymore? These and many other questions have been asked on the series From The Center, produced for us by Florence Mischel. In February, the Center will undertake its most significant convocation. The subject will be The Requirements for Peace, and will take as its point of departure the encyclical Pacem In Terris by Pope John XXIII. Some twenty internationally known figures, representing the entire spectrum of political opinion, will participate, speaking in New York before an invited audience limited to 700. We will, of course, be bringing you the highlights of this three-day convocation, beginning with a Center staff discussion of the encyclical to be broadcast in late February. At that time we will also present a dozen profiles of the Center staff, prepared especially for us by Mrs. Mischel. As a preview of this important Folio, we are featuring in the present programming nine of the best discussions From The Center. These can be heard at about 9:15 p.m. five weeknights and on both weekend afternoons. (See Folio listings for exact days, times and rebroadcasts.) Some of those to be heard on The Center Revisited include Aldous Huxley, Stringfellow Barr, Rico Lebrun and Hubert Humphrey.

Prefer Music?

KPFK's Music Department would like to call your attention to the first of a new series of monthly Live Studio Concerts featuring the Bodzely Trio on Sunday, December 13 at 8:30 p.m. Another new series is The Romantic Tradition, programs to do with 19th century musical performance practices. The first, on Saturday, December 12, at 3:00, is a presentation by Dr. Jerrold Moore of the Yale University Historical Sound Recordings Program, on Elgar as a performing musician, and the second, December 19 at 3:00, is a presentation by local Engineer-Enthusiast Michael Lane on past pianist greats. In addition, this Folio includes five more Sibelius Festival programs, a public recital by pianist Carl Matthes recorded before he left for Europe, Mozart's Il re pastore, and Verdi's Attila.

What's For Young People?

Our live broadcast for the month of December will take place on Saturday, the 19th at 10:00 a.m. in our Studio D. If you are six or older, call us (TR 7-5583) and tell us to expect you. Parents are invited, too.

Put Some Color In Our Lives

One of the hard facts of life is that colored ink for the Folio costs additional money. The cost of the colored ink for the September 14-27 and November 23-December 6 Folios was donated by two subscribers seeking relief from the endless black. We would like to print our Holiday Folio in color—wouldn't you like to make it possible? Send your contribution to KPFK, L.A. 38, and mark it "Colored Ink Fund."

8:30 LIVE STUDIO D CONCERTS—SERIES

A: The Bodzely Trio. The group, consisting of T. K. Wang, violin; Wendy Brennan, cello, and Gloria Bolivar, piano, will monthly explore the literature for this combination, much of it out-of-the-way material. Each concert will contain one of Haydn's 31 piano trios (only 10 are available on records). As far as possible, they will be presented in chronological order. The first program contains the Trio in G minor, (composed before 1766; Hoboken catalogue No. 1, Peters Edition No. 19), and a Trio by the contemporary Russian, Sviridov. Concert begins at 8:30. Open to the public. Donation $1.00. Call KPFFK for reservations. (60)

9:30 THE WORLD OF RAY BRADBURY: The author of The Martian Chronicles, Fahrenheit 451, Something Wicked This Way Comes, and half-a-dozen other books, discusses such subjects as Science-Fiction, Los Angeles, sex, his writing methods, rapid transit, canned soup, The Ideal Woman, values and the pursuit of excellence. Francis Roberts is the interviewer. (DEC 14)

 7:00 AS BEETHOVEN WOULD HAVE HEARD IT—I: Today is his 194th birthday. If he were with us today and if he were able to hear, he could join with us in listening to this duplication of a concert first given in Vienna's Kaerntner Theater, performed by that theater's orchestra and chorus augmented by amateur forces of the Gesellschaft de Musikfreunde in May, 1824. The conductor was Michael Umlauf. Beethoven gave the tempos at the beginning of each movement. The program, to be performed by artists to be announced, consisted of the following works: Overture—Die Weihe des Hauses (The Consecration of the House), Three Grand Hymns with solo and choral voices (Kyrie, Credio and Agnus Dei from the Missa solennis), and Symphony No. 9 in D minor (first performance). (140)
 9:30 THE CENTER REVISITED—VII: The Vision of the Artist. Rico Lebrun, internationally known painter, teacher, and writer, and William Gorman, an editor of the Great Books of the Western World, and Center staff member, discuss technique as it challenges the artist's personal vision and his responsibility to his work and to himself. 1:00 A BACH RECITAL: Rosalyn Tureck plays selections from the keyboard works. (Dec DL 10061) (54)

2:00 THE CENTER REVISITED—VIII: The First Amendment: The Schools and Religion: Few rulings handed down by the Supreme Court have stirred so much controversy as the decision banning religious exercises in public schools. Robert M. Hutchins leads a staff discussion of the 1963 school prayer decision. By resting its case on the "establishment" clause instead of the "free exercise" clause, says Mr. Hutchins, the Court made a good decision for a bad reason.

3:00 THE ROMANTIC TRADITION—II: Great pianists. Audio Engineer and Historical Piano Recordings enthusiast Michael Lane presents the first of a series of programs devoted to the great 19th-century pianists. Lane, by various specialized techniques, distills every drop of cleanly-recorded sound out of these vintage discs. He opens with a sampler of Godowsky, Grainger, Friedman, Cortot, Hofmann, Poulsh-noff, and Rachmaninoff. (DEC 22)
